Lesson Structure

The Crazy Feet singing school offers Private and small group lessons (of up to 4 students). Within the lesson student's work on vocal techniques, breathing exercises, support and gaining an understanding of the physical aspects of voice production. Students also learn microphone skills, performance skills and different ways to interpret songs.

Students can choose to study from a variety of singing styles; Pop, Musical Theatre or Classical. It is suggested that parents and students discuss with the teacher which style they wish to study at the commencement of classes.

Students may like to suggest songs that they are interested in learning, however their teacher will choose the most appropriate song from your selection, taking into account age appropriateness, vocal ability and the area of your vocal technique they may be focussing on improving.

Private singing lessons help a student to improve vocally, eliminating bad habits and reinforcing correct technique. It is important that all students practise at home - vocal warm ups are essential, at least 15 minutes every second day. As with learning a musical instrument, the rate of improvement will be hindered if regular practise doesn't occur.

Group Lessons:

Small group lessons are available if you are able to organise a group of 2 or more. (Crazy Feet does not organise the groups)

Cancellation Policy: If one group member cannot attend and sufficient notice is given the lesson will be rescheduled to another time unless the other member wishes to pay for a solo private lesson.

What should I bring to class

- (1) A folder with plastic inserts to hold sheet music.
- (2) An exercise book and pencil and pen.

Performance Opportunities

Crazy Feet realises that it is important for singing students to perform several times a year to help solidify techniques learnt and build confidence as well as improve performance skills. The singing school has several concerts and performance opportunities for the private singing students. All performances are held in a relaxed, non-threatening environment with an emphasis on fun. Students who take group lessons will present group items (not a solo each). Students who take private lessons will present a solo, sometimes with backing/supporting singers. Performance dates will be made available in early 2019.

Cabaret

The singing school has a mid-year performance known as the "Cabaret". This is the singing students "Show". It will be in the style of a mini musical and is held in mid August (Subject to theatre availability). Additional classes for singing students will be held to put the show/musical together. Likely times for these additional classes are: Saturdays: 3:30pm—5:30pm

These will take place during Term 2 so please keep these days and times available if you intend to be part of this fun production! A calendar confirming all dates will be sent out in Term 1, 2019.
